Roselle Public Library Launches Fall 2021 Programs

ROSELLE, NJ - September 16, 2021 - The Roselle Public Library has announced a variety of daily programs for the fall, geared towards kids of all ages.

Starting this week, programs will be offered both virtually and outside, Monday through Friday. Mondays kick off with a virtual Knitting/Crocheting at 5 p.m. Tuesdays feature outdoor Storytime Crafts at 3:30 p.m., and Wednesdays offer virtual Pajama Storytime at 7 p.m. Thursdays will feature two outdoor programs: Toddler Time at 11:30 a.m., and Art Journaling at 3:30 p.m. Fridays end the week with Legos outdoors at 3:30 p.m.

“Everyone at the library is so excited to welcome people back with our hybrid schedule of programming,” said Library Director Jeanne Marie Ryan. “More programs will be announced soon.”

All outdoor programs are held at the Roselle Public Library, 104 West Fourth Avenue. To register for virtual programs, email rosellelibrarynj@gmail.com.

“Libraries play such an important role in the education and development of children and we’re excited that the Roselle Library has a full lineup of programs for this fall,” said Mayor Donald Shaw. “We encourage all to participate in these programs.”
